ASTROLOGY,

SCOTT, DR. JOHNSON, BONAPARTE—THESE THREE
All believed firmly in Astrology.
And kings and lords, more than the muse can name;
Have put their signet seels to Roback's fame.
From Sweden's land, a singer and a seer
Came o'er the sea to try their influence here.
A Lind, a Roback—eaen in different ways—
Excited wonder and commanded praise.
There is no family in Sweden better known than that of Roback. For one hundred and seventy five years every member of the race has had the gift of fortelling the future, and declaring the events of the past; and kings, emperors, nobles, and cheirs, have consulted them with reverence. But in none of the race has the gift been so powerfully disveloped or so assiduously cultivated as in Dr. C. W. Roback, now residing in this city, at No. 6 White street, whose reputation for curing the most fatal diseases, and giving a fortunate termination of all events in business, speculation and courtiship, is proverbial throughout the United States. He selves all difficulties by astrology, geomancy, the oracles and the tigns of the Zediac. The nativities he casts are as truthful as fate itself. He now invites all who are in difficulty to consult him—all who are sight to come and try the value of astrology. All letters to C. W. ROBACK, No. 6 White street, will be religiously attended to, if pre-paid. For more particulars, call and get an Astrological Almanac gratis, where certificates can be seen.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL Companion.—By Dr. A. M. Mauricean, Professor of Diseases of Women.—Twentieth edition: 15 me. pp. 282. Price 51. Years of suffering, of physicial and me stal angulash to many an affectionate wife, and poeuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been apared by a timely presented of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets, which should be known to them particularly.

Here, also, every female—the wife—the mother—the case dither budding into womanhood, or the other in the declinal of years—in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, sym stoms, and the most efficient remedies, and most certain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject.

(Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Dayton, Ohie.)

Dr. A. M. MAUNICEAU:—

My DRAR SHE—My wife has been parceptibly sinking feg seme three years or more, in consequence of her great angulah and suffering some months bifore and during her centimement—every successive one more and more debilitating and which was, on the last occasion despaired of. I supposed this state of things was inevitable, and resigned my read to things was inevitable, and resigned my read to thing was inevitable, and resigned my self to meet the worst. At this time (now about two months) I heard your book highly appeken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I cannot express to you the relief it affords my discressed mind, and the loy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Decomeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conceived was possible. But for this, ere another year would have head in her grave, and my children left matheriess.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey may feelily the serious subjects treated of, as they are of a nature, strictly intended for the married, or
